INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Gyan Mandir Public School celebrated Independence Day with unparalleled enthusiasm and a deep sense of patriotism. The event was marked by the esteemed presence of Rear Admiral Rahul Shankar, NM, as the Chief Guest, Dr. Suchita Malik, the beloved sister of Shaheed Major (Dr.) Ashwini Kumar Kanva, as the Guest of Honour and other dignitaries.

The ceremony began with the hoisting of the National Flag by Rear Admiral Rahul Shankar, NM, symbolizing the pride and honour of the nation. The students then filled the atmosphere with patriotic fervour through a soul-stirring song and a powerful dance drama, both of which paid tribute to the countless heroes who fought for India's freedom. A moment of pride was felt by all when Palak, an exceptional student of Class XII, was awarded the Shourya Puruskar for her outstanding achievements.

In a speech that resonated deeply with the audience, Rear Admiral Rahul Shankar, NM urged everyone to keep the spirit of our great nation alive. He emphasized the importance of duty, honour and patriotism, inspiring every student and teacher to contribute towards the nation's glory.

Dr. Suchita Malik's address touched the hearts of everyone present as she recounted the sacrifices of her brother, Shaheed Major (Dr.) Ashwini Kumar Kanva. Her words were a poignant reminder of the price of freedom and the duty we owe to our country.

Principal Rajesh Bano Preeya, in her heartfelt welcome speech, encouraged everyone to work towards achieving true freedom—freedom from poverty, inequality and injustice. She called upon students and teachers alike to strive for a nation where inclusivity, equality and opportunity reign supreme.

The event also reflected the visionary guidance of the school's Chairman, Mr. Prashant Khosla, whose commitment to holistic education and nation-building was evident throughout the celebration.

The Independence Day programme at Gyan Mandir Public School concluded with a renewed sense of dedication to the ideals of freedom, unity and service to the nation, leaving everyone deeply moved and inspired.
