

DESHBHAKTI ACTIVITY

MONTH-JULY

ACTIVITY: -Discussion and Role Play with costume

The Deshbhakti class commenced with a captivating storytime session, aimed at instilling patriotism and fostering a deeper understanding of India's freedom fighters. The teacher regaled the students with tales of the bravery and sacrifices of iconic figures such as Mahatma Gandhi, Bhagat Singh, and Rani Laxmibai, accompanied by visual aids that helped bring the stories to life. Students enthusiastically participated by dressing up as their favorite freedom fighters, incorporating creative props like headgear and posters to enhance their portrayals.

Each student delivered a brief presentation about the freedom fighter they represented, showcasing their knowledge and creativity. This engaging and interactive approach sparked a sense of wonder and appreciation among the students, introducing them to the significant contributions of these heroes in Indian history."
