Time – 10.00 a.m.

“A parent is a teacher at home and a teacher is a parent in school and the child is the centre of our universe.”

Gyan Mandir Public School organized an Orientation Programme for the parents of Pre-School . The aim was to familiarize them with the school’s culture, ethos, curriculum and teaching pedagogies.

The session commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp to invoke the blessings of God. In her welcome address, Ms. R. Banopreeya, Principal Designate, enlightened the gathering by highlighting school’s achievements and accolades.

She guided the young parents about the effective parenting and emphasized on nurturing a child with love and care in order to build a strong foundation for a glorious future and how the school would aid in moulding the personality of the children.

She also assured the parents that their children would be in safe hands in Gyan Mandir Public School and highlighted the nurturing that the school would provide in terms of grooming and mentoring their wards and preparing them for future.

With the help of a Powerpoint Presentation , Ms. Neeru Sachdeva , the compere of the programme , gave an insight into the vision and mission of the school. The parents were apprised of rules and regulations , safety and security measures in school, teaching methodologies , the wide array of co- scholastic activities and effective channels of communication between parents and school.

In the edifying session , Ms. Sushma Soni , Supervisor of Pre-Primary Department , briefed the parents about the changing scenario in education, culture and working atmosphere of the school , general code of conduct and guidelines. She emphasized on effective communication between teachers and parents and laid stress on cordial teamwork of parents and teachers which can result in making the children grow up as confident, morally conscious and responsible adults with 21st century skills .

The little angels of the school made the atmosphere vivifying with their resplendent dance performances and enthralled the audience with riveting enactments based on SDG 11 and road safety.

Later, the parents were guided to log into Parentsalarm App and Microsoft Teams . This effort was highly appreciated by them.

The orientation programme proved to be a sincere effort in guiding the parents to look after and nurture their children in an impeccable manner. It also gave the parents an assurance that the curriculum of the school involves self-directed, hand-on learning activities which not only give vent to the creative talents and energies of the blooming buds but also help in their holistic development.

The interactive and informative session won appreciation of the parents from all corners, as they supported the new initiatives and volunteered to lend their support and cooperation in all the future endeavours.
