

Gyan Mandir Public School Celebrated A Vibrant Independence Day- A Report

For India the midnight between 14th and 15th of August 1947, pushed opened the gates of self role when a restless, eager and dynamic nation raised its face, lifted its fate and opened its arms to the winds of change. To mark this glorious triumph, Gyan Mandir Public School celebrated the 76th Independence Day with boundless enthusiasm and patriotic fervour.

The school lawn was beautifully decorated with flags and balloons to commemorate the day. All the students, teachers, and parents gathered in the school premises at 9.15 a.m to witness a colorful programme. The chief guest for the occasion was Doctor Sanjay Chaturvedi, Deputy Director of Education, District, South West A. School Chairman, Mr. Prashant Khosla welcomed the Chief Guest. The guest of honour for the event was Mrs. Suchita Malik, sister of martyr Dr. Ashwani Kanav.

The event commenced with the hoisting of the National Flag followed by the National Anthem. The singing of the National song, 'Vande Mataram' stirred in one and all, strong feelings of patriotism. Each moment of the patriotic fervour was relished by the August gathering. Our respected Principal, Mrs. Rajesh Bano Preeya motivated the gathering with her inspirational words and welcomed the Chief Guest and the management. Next to follow was a highly motivational and power packed performance in the form of a dance drama presenting to the audience the life journey of the brave freedom fighters 'Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev and Rajguru'. After that, the School choir group presented an immensely sublime song, 'Satangi Desh Hamara'. The event resonated with the thunderous claps of the gathering which no doubt echoed the patriotic fervour and zeal from every corner. Chief guest, Dr. Sanjay Chaturvedi addressed the gathering with his insightful, thought-provoking and enlightening words. The programme culminated with the Vote of Thanks extended by the school Vice Principal, Mrs. Babita Wason. The celebration was truly a memorable one efficaciously creating an ambience of patriotism, unity, integrity and harmony.
