

TEACHERS' DAY CELEBRATION

Day & Date – Monday , 05.09.2022

“One book, one pen, one child, and one teacher can change the world.”

– Malala Yousafzai

Teachers not only impart good knowledge but also encourage and instil curiosity to find solutions to problems. They act as students' role models and inspiration. They mould the young impressionable minds.

To honour and celebrate the bond between teachers and students , Teachers' Day was celebrated on September 5th, 2022 with great enthusiasm.

A special assembly was organised by the teachers of Gyan Mandir Public School on the occasion of Teachers' Day.

The programme commenced with the chanting of Shalokas to invoke the blessings of God. Ms. Swati Bose delivered a Special Talk to highlight the importance of the day.

Bharat Vikas Parishad, a socio-cultural NGO , felicitates our teachers and students every year. This year they honoured Ms. Sangeeta Joshi and Ms. Nisha Ahuja with 'Best Teacher Award'. Following students were also felicitated -

1. Aditi Kumari XII-B (Science)
2. Antara Mahanty XII-B (Science)
3. Rishika Goel XII-A (Commerce)
4. Ashia Ali XII-C (Humanities)

Honourable Principal ma'am , Ms. Rajesh BanoPreeya , acknowledged the dedicated efforts of a few staff members on this special day.

This year the following staff members won the accolades -

- Ms. Namrata Vashisht for Excellent Result in History Class XII (2021-2022)
- Ms. Prabha Sinha for Excellent Result in English Class X (2021-2022)
- Mr. Akhil Maini for innovative practices in co-scholastic activities
- Ms. Monika Lamba for exemplary commitment & contribution in winning accolades and awards for school
- Mr. Hitesh Lal for his dedicated efforts to bring laurels to the school in Zonal & Inter-School Competitions
- Ms. Ravita Tandon for taking initiatives for Community Outreach Programmes & for bringing laurels to the school in Zonal & Inter-School Competitions
- Mr. Deepanshu Kumar in recognition of his relentless commitment & loyalty towards the institution
- Ms. Sheetal in recognition of her loyalty & commitment towards the institution
- Mr. Mahesh in recognition of his loyalty & commitment towards the institution

The programme concluded with a dazzling dance performance by the students of XII std. The resplendent performance brought a smile on everyone's face and also made the atmosphere vivifying.

To create unforgettable memories , the second half of the day was spent with great gusto and gaiety at Palm Grand Banquet Hall , NarainaVihar. All the staff members walked the ramp and the show stopper was honourable Principal Ma'am , Ms. Rajesh BanoPreeya. Innovative games, melodious songs and resplendent dance performances enthralled everyone. Honourable Principal Ma'am also sang a melodious song and won everyone's heart.

Overall it was a day to be cherished forever.