Graduation Day at Gyan Mandir Public School was a celebration of innocence, joy and the limitless potential of our little learners. For the young minds of the Pre-Primary wing, this special day marked the first chapter of their educational journey—filled with excitement and the promise of new horizons.

The event was graced by the esteemed presence of our honourable Chief Guest, Dr. Shankar Lal Jat ,Sr. Scientist, ICAR-IIMR Delhi unit, Pusa Campus New Delhi who showered his blessings and encouragement on the little graduates.

Our respected Principal, Ms. Rajesh Bano Preeya, warmly welcomed the gathering and expressed deep gratitude to the parents for their constant support. She emphasized the importance of nurturing curiosity and creativity in young minds, laying the foundation for a lifelong love of learning.

The atmosphere was filled with joy and pride as the Pre-Primary students took centre stage, showcasing their year-long journey of growth. Their vibrant performances—from energetic dances to entralling skits—lit up the stage and brought smiles to every face.

The most heartwarming moment arrived when the young graduates, dressed in their caps and gowns, walked proudly across the stage to receive their well-deserved certificates. Each step reflected their hard work, enthusiasm and readiness to embrace the world ahead.

As the graduates received their certificates, the audience erupted in applause, filled with admiration for the tiny stars who had shone brightly throughout the year. The Chief Guest shared his heartfelt congratulations, applauding the dedication of the teachers and the unwavering support of the parents in shaping these children’s early steps in education.

The ceremony concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks by Ms. Neeru Sachdeva, Primary Headmistress, who expressed her gratitude to everyone who contributed to making the day so memorable.

It was a day of pride, joy and immense love — a day that celebrated the promising future of each child and the boundless possibilities that lie ahead.
